To the Advertiser

Greek, Serbian and Bulgarian columns are moving upon Salonica. The Greeks already are within striking distance of the Turkish town of Veria, only fifty miles from Salonica, on the railroad from Monastir.

The unofficial report from Constantinople that the Turkish town of Seria has been recaptured from the Greeks, is not credited in London.

Austria does not contemplate any active intervention, and there exists here a well-founded hope of an improvement in Austro-Serbian relations. If this is so, the danger always expected to arise in Europe from a Balkan war may be avoided.

The Montenegrins occupied the heights of Busale, Rogame and Castani, all of which overlooks Scutari, and they have entrenched themselves there with a strong force of artillery. The Malissoti tribesmen again attacked the Turks to the East of Scutari, but were repulsed after ten hours' hard fighting.

The Turkish commander in Scutari is trying to induce the Mir-Dito tribesmen to attack the Montenegrin troops from the South, so that the road to the port of Alessio could be used as a line of retreat for the Turkish army in case of necessity.

The Turkish town of Seria, recently captured by the Greeks, is reported reoccupied by Ottoman Empire troops, according to telegrams from Salonica received in London today.

Secretary of the Interior Walter L. Fisher conferred with President Taft over the long distance telephone from Chicago last night concerning the results of Mr. Fisher's tour of investigation in the Hawaiian Islands.

Formal recommendations concerning the administration of the Islands were made by Secretary Fisher some time ago, and yesterday President Taft said to Mr. Fisher that the recommendations would be approved.

Herbert S. Hocken, accused of being a dynamite equally guilty with the McNamara brothers, John J. and James B., was again charged by a witness in the dynamite conspiracy trial today in Indianapolis with secretly having given evidence to the government.

A thousand policemen will be assigned to Madison Square Garden and thereabouts for the Roosevelt meeting tomorrow night.

Three young robbers held up a south-bound passenger train on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad, south of Bufala today, and compelled the engineer to detach the express and baggage cars and run them ahead. They then blasted and rifled the express safe.

Ex-Police Lieut. Charles E. Becker, who had shown signs of a hysterical collapse during the past two days, has regained his nerve, and today was the same collected, quiet, calm man of iron that he was before he heard himself pronounced guilty of murder in the first degree, for the slaying of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler.

"I am sorry," Becker said today, "that I was impelled by impetuosity to issue statements in contradiction to the orders of my counsel, Pohn F. McIntyre. I have nothing else to say."

The schooner Defender, twenty days from Honolulu, encountered light winds for the first ten days of her trip. Then came a succession of southeasterly gales which lasted for six days. The schooner lost a number of sails and everything movable on deck was washed overboard.

The engagement is announced of Mrs. Frances Polson-Cleveland, widow of Grover Cleveland, former President of the United States, and Prof. Thomas Preston, of Wells College, at Aurora, Cayuga county, New York, where Mrs. Cleveland graduated in 1885, and of which she is a trustee. Mrs. Cleveland has been a widow since 1908.

After a restful and generally improved condition, which continued well into the forenoon today, Vice-president James S. Sherman this afternoon suffered a recurrence of the distressing condition which marked his case yesterday.
